LOCAL NEWS.

THE STRIKE .- The only manifestation the colored strikers of Washington have made in this city since their unsuccessful attempt to intimidate the laborers at the lower coal yards vesterday, was evidenced this morning in a note that had been pushed under the front door of the residence of Capt. Boothe last night. and which informed the Captain, who is the Superintendent of the American Coal Company, in very ungramatical style, that he must pay his laborers $2 a day or suffer the consequences. In consequence of the strike in Georgetown several vessels from that place have come here and been loaded at Mr. Agnew's wharves for northern ports. The Mayor has instructed the police to be on the lookout for the strikers' emissaries, and to arrest them on sight.

INFRACTION OF GAME LAWS .- Two men landed here from the Maryland ferry boat Virginia this morning, and took the eleven o'clock boat for Washington. They were armed with fowling pieces, accompanied with dogs, and had their bird bags filled with half grown wood cocks, which they had slaughtered while hunting from Washington down to Possum Hall, on the opposite side of the river. If they had hunted on this instead of the other side of the Potomae, they would certainly have been arrested, and made to pay the full penalty of the law for killing birds out of season.

RUNNING STOCK .- One passenger and one freight car made at the works of Jackson and Sharp, Delaware, passed though here this morning via the O. A. & M. R. R. for the Savannah Seaboard and Skidaway R. R. The passenger car was constructed differently from those on the roads in this section being as short as those on the A. & W. R. R. and having a row of single seats along either side and double seats in the middle.

ALEXANDRIA GRAYS .- The drill of the Alexandria Grays last night, was characterized by great spirit and precision of movement. Interest in the success of the company seems to be mereasing among the members in equal ratio with the company's increasing proficiency in strill. Members who did not get their pompons | Gazette. last night can procure them at the counting toon of the orderly sergeant.

CLOTHES ROBBEAY. The house of Mr. kidmore, lock keeper of the Alexandria canal. near the basin, was entered last night and robbed of all the clothes that had been washed this week, and that were to have been ironed to-day. Mrs. Skidmore heard the noise made by the thief but thought it was caused by her husband whom she supposed was walking about the room.

RIVER NEWS .- Affairs on the river were very quiet this morning. In addition to the were several that had come from Georgetown | with. to load for northern ports. The steamer Express arrived up from Baltimore last night and unloaded so as to be ready to carry an excursion party from Washington down the river

Corpus Christi, a festival instituted by and ring the station house in his efforts to escape, kept only in the Roman Catholic Church, and always falls on the Thursday of the week after Pentecost. The festival is held in commemoration of the consecrated Host, or, as it is termed by Roman Catholics, the feast of the blessed sacrament. The day is kept in all respects in the Church as Sunday.

City Council.—A called meeting of the City Council was to have been held last night, but no quorum was present in either board. In the Board of Aldermen but three members, prisoners and two lodgers were at the station Messrs. Marbury, French and Markell were in attendance, and in the Common Council but five, Messrs. Smoot, Shinn, Harrison, Waterman and Parker.

Almost a Fire.-The paint room of Mr. Henry Miffleton's wheelwright shop, at the upper end of Duke street accidentally caught fire, yesterday, but the flames were speedily extinguished by the hands employed there with some tub-fulls of water that had been used by near the Catholic burying ground yesterday evening, between two colored men named Norris and Bagby, but though the police were present the disturbers of the peace were not arrested because they were beyond the corporation line.

Occoquan Steamers.-The stern wheel steamer Virginia was sold this morning by J. M. Meredeth to Duty and Grimes of Fairfax. for $3,000. She will in conjunction with the stern wheeler Enterprise, owned by the same firm, run regularly Letween this city and Occo-

THE WEATHER .- Notwithstanding the frequent showers we have had during the last few days, the weather continues very warm. We hope no damage will happen to the wheat. The pastures are just now very fine. Butter ought to be cheap, because it will not keep well in such weather.

PAYMENT OF LOSS .- Messrs. Geo. K. Witmer & Co., agents of the Old Dominion Insurance Co. of Richmond, Va., have paid to Chas. Brill $2,500, the amount of insurance taken by that company on his stock and building destroyed by the fire of the 19th of May.

LOUDOUN MARBLE COMPANY .- A meeting of the stockholders of the Loudoun County Marble Company was held at the Mansion House this morning. J. D. Defriese, Judge Wright, F. P. Stanton, B. P. Noland, R. W. Noland and B. F. Carter were present.

CANAL NAVIGATION.-There was a slight interruption in the navigation of the canal yesterday, caused by an injury to a gate at 'seven locks," but the damage was soon repairand hoats are again arriving and departing as PUBLIC READING .- Professor Sharff concluded his readings for the present in this city. last night, at the Assembly rooms. In consequence of the inclement weather the attendance was small.

BROKEN THIGH.-While two small colored je 8-tf boys were playing on south Fairfax street, yesterday evening, one of them named William Rockes Harvest Rokes Smith had his thigh bone broken by the other, sale by Moses Taylor, who fell upon it.

PATENTS. - Among the United States patents issued last week was one to James P. Machen. of Centerville, Fairfax county, Va., for a broadcast fertilizer distributor, and one to Wesley Makely, of Alexandria, for a still for spirits, &c.

BACON THEFT. - The house of Mr. Randolph Simms, on Columbus street, near the brick row, was robbed, yesterday, during the temporary absence of its occupants of a lot of bacon.

THE MAIL.-No change has been made in the opening and closing of the northern mail in consequence of the new schedule on which the Aquia Creek boats are now running.

A TREAT.—Yesterday evening just as the labors of the day were drawing to a close, and while the earth was being cooled with a refreshing shower, we received from Mr. Henry Brengle, 121 King street, a freezer-a big one-tilled with hard frozen cream, its richness displayed in its beautiful golden tint. and most deliciously flavored, accompanied with a splendid pound cake, a present to the employees of the Gazette Office, and it is scarcely necessary to add that it was enjoyed and eulogized in prose and poetry. It was so good and there was such an abundance that some of the neighbors were called in to enjoy the treat which they did with a gusto. Mr. B. has always enjoyed a high reputation for his cream and if it is all like that sent us, "the half has not been told." At his Confectionery he has an elegantly fitted up saloon for ladies and gentlemen, where we would advise all who want to refresh the inner man, in these piping hot times, to go.

FALL'S CHURCH, June 7th, 1871. I have noticed a letter from this village in the Gazette, under date of the 26th ultimo, which assumes to give an account of the incidents of the recent election, and which, from its wide departure from facts, requires a reply. The facts in relation to the matters of which the letter treats are these: Two colored men, living, it is supposed, near the line between Providence and Falls Church townships, voted at Falls Church. Falls Church townships, voted at Falls Church.
They voted where they supposed they had the at a supper of the Union League Club of New right to vote. There is only a vague idea in the minds of most of the people in the neighborhood where the colored men live with regard to where the township line is. Indeed, none know where FIGHT. - A fight occurred at the brick yard it is precisely. Well, near the close of the day, it was discovered that two men (Radicals, it is now supposed,) had cast illegal votes, and the judges of election set themselves about an investigation of the cases. Evidently to find some means of throwing out these two votes constituted the animus of the affair. A coup d'etat was planned and almost carrried into effect, and I understand a self-constituted officer of the law, without process, waited on the men and demanded their appearance before the judges of election, menacing them with an arrest if they refused to comply—(the letter says "were arrested.") The colored men, however, without objection, in due time, put in an appearance, and then commenced the proceedings. The men were sworn, and the judges of election proceeded to examine them.—
The examination elicited nothing more from the accused than that they had voted, not with any intention of doing wrong, but with the understanding that they were voting in their own precinct; and it appeared also to be a matter of very great doubt as to whether or not the township line included them in or excluded them from Falls Church township, and they were discharged. Need any one be told that this whole affair, the arrest, trial or examination, is without authority of law? Or that each one of the actors in the same has presented an actionable case for the And is it not unaccountably strange that court? one of the participators in the transaction should, as he has done, rush into print with such a statement as to render a reply necessary. I am no apologist for fraudulent voting. I would punish every man of every party for so doing. I believe that the only means of perpetuating the in-stitutions of this beneficent country is to be found in the honesty of the people and the purity of the ballot box. Fairfax co., je 8-1t.

The President Again Interviewed.

NEW YORK, June 8. - The President in conversation yesterday said: There is a great deal of nonsense written about me. I dont want to do any more than carry out the wishes of the American people, as they are expressed through their representatives and the press. I try to observe the oath of office I took when inaugurated and I believe I have succeeded. What good I have done, the credit is to the people. The faults of the administration are mine : my faults have come to the front and Indians on the plains either are interested or know nothing of the condition of affairs in the wild regions where the Indians live. I have lived with the Indians and know them thoroughly. They can be civilized and made friends of the republic. It takes tact and skill however to deal with them. They are shrewd and cunning and wont be shaved out of their rights if they know it. My policy is peace. When I said "Let us have peace" I ment it. want peace on the plains as everywhere else. That attack on the Apaches was murder purely. The Apaches are war-like: that is the young sayages wonder off to rob and murder occasionally, but no doubt they have provocation. I will investigate the massacre of the Apaches at Camp Grant and be just to all concerned. The Indian question is not one the Government should be called upon to settle. The citizens of the outlying States and territories ought to be able to fix ing their business are, as will be seen by a notice in another column, instructed to call at the Mayor's office forthwith.

States and termones ought to a able to the doing well; have been doing well and will do more. Other denominations of Christians are also laboring with effect Delicious Fruit.—Mr. M. Bossart sent to among the Indians. They are all laboring for the same end and I will give them all the suppolicy of peace, sir, is much preferable to the policy of war. Funeral Ceremonies in Paris.

PARIS, June 7.-The funeral ceremonies today over the remains of five clerical victims of the Commune were solenin and impressive. The church of Notre Dame was grandly arrayed. The central object in solemn pomp was a gorgeous catafalque containing the remains of the Archbishop, surrounded by minor structures, bearing the corpses of Duguerry, Cure of Madelaine, Suret, Grand Vicar of the diocese, Be court and Sabatur. The coffin of the Archbishop was covered with pall black velvet embroidered and enriched with a massive silver cross. Thousands of tapers were burning in a silver candelabra and the incense vessels were also silver. The floor was covered with black cloth and the pulpit covered with black gauze bespangled with silver stars. In the transepts, 150 feet wide, appeared huge recesses of black drapery, which covered every statue, except those of the Virgin and child and St. Dennis. first bishop of Paris. In the midst of all were the black and charred remains of the bishop's chair and his throne, also half burned, with which the Communists endeavored to burn the cathedral, was left intact as a memento of the erime. The weather was dull. Along the route of the procession the streets were crammed with spectators. Bells were tolling, a salute was fired and a strong force of regulars with reversed arms and muffled drums were in the procession. The funeral car of the Archbishop was covered with silver and drawn by six horses. Another beautiful car containing the remains of Suret followed. The procession reached the cathedral at 11 'clock. The inside was crowded with members of the Assembly, priests and Sisters of Charity. At 11 o'clock the priests' deputies left the chancel and proceeded to the great doors, which were draped with black, to meet the coffins. Chanting then commenced and outside was heard the beating of drums, the pealing of trumpets, and the roaring of cannon. At the elevation of the Host, the firing was repeated. The altar was magnificently decorated, and the service was long and solemn. McMahon, Drusy, Vinov L'Admirault, and Favre were present.

Letter from Gen. Sherman. NEW YORK, June 8. - The Herald publishes

To the Editor of the Herald: I have been skirting the Texas frontier for the past month and here I meet files of Eastern papers by which I see quite an unnecessary muss has Orleans the night preceding my departure from that city. Whoever reported that as a speech from me committed a breach of propriety, for Gov. Warmouth presided and before I consented to respond to a call, I was assured by the president of the Society that no reporters were present, and that whatever was said would be sacred and confined to the persons present. Now as to politics. I think all my friends know my deep seated antipathy to the subject, yet as you seem not to understand me, I hereby state, and mean all I say, that I never have been and never will be a candidate for President-that if nominated by either party I should peremtorily decline, and even if unanimously elected I should decline to serve. If you can find language stronger to convey this meaning you are at liberty to use it.

I am your obedient servant. W. T. SHERMAN, General.

ELEGANTHAIR adds a charm to the plain-est face; but when faded, features before agreeable lose their comeliness, and the whole expression is that of advancing age. This being a fact, it is not surprising that even injurious articles should have been prepared to supply the millions who wish to avoid premature gray hair. Under these circumstances it will scarcely be wondered at that NATTANS' CRYSTAL DIS-COVERY should have met with such extraordinary success. It is the only preparation furnishing a safe and reliable restorer for the hair; absolutely free from all poisonous and deleterious matter and without sediment, and thousands above thousands have availed themselves of it, not simply because it restores the color of the hair, but because it ers with superior supplies nourishment. It feeds the roots of the hair, so that where decayed it becomes vigorous and healthy again. From all sections of the country orders and testimonials are received daily, speaking in the highest terms of its qualities as the only preparation that ever gave entire satisfaction. Those who have used CRYSTAL DISCOVERY will not use anything else; but to those who have not tried this excellent article it is recommended that when they are again in want of something of the kind to give it a trial; you will be more than pleased; you will be delighted with it, and will never again be without Don't let your druggist, if he has not got CRYSTAL DISCOVERY persuade you to buy something else, or you will be disappointed: rather go where you can get it put up in large bottles, containing half as much more as any other in market and, consequently, much the cheapest.
